JUDICIAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND FOR THE YEAR 1906.

PART I.—CRIMINAL STATISTICS.

REPORT

TO

HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN CAMPBELL, EARL OF ABERDEEN, K.T.,

&c., &c., &c.,

LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

I.—INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

I have the honour of submitting to Your Excellency my Report (abstracted from the Detailed Tables, which are also appended) of the number and nature of Criminal offences committed in Ireland during the year 1906,* also an account of the measures adopted for the prevention and punishment of crime. The arrangement of the Tables is substantially the same as that adopted in the Reports on Criminal Statistics in the preceding 11 years.

*I.—Intro-
Remarks.*

For the purpose of comparing the variations in the number of Criminal offences during a series of years, comparative tables have, as heretofore, been compiled, which contain statistics for the twenty years, 1887-1906, with quinquennial averages; these tables, five in number, appear at the conclusion of the Report.

A division into "indictable" and "non-indictable" offences is adopted as the general classification of offences.

*Classification
offences.*

Indictable offences are divided into the following six classes:—

- Class I.—Offences against the person.
- Class II.—Offences against property with violence.
- Class III.—Offences against property without violence.
- Class IV.—Malicious injuries to property.
- Class V.—Forgery and offences against the currency.
- Class VI.—Other offences not included in the above classes.

Non-indictable offences are grouped, as far as circumstances permit, either according to their nature or according to the Statutes under which they become amenable to the law. This is, however, not a formal classification. The statistics relating to them are given in the tables showing the criminal business in the Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, in which tables the cases disposed of summarily are classified under two heads, viz. :—

Section A.—Indictable offences disposed of summarily.

Section B.—Other offences disposed of summarily.

Many of the minor cases in Section B, although classed as "offences," partake more of a civil than of a criminal character.

* Three Schedules, showing in detail alterations in classification introduced in the year 1895, will be found on pages 33-55 of the Criminal Statistics for that year.

I.—Introductory Remarks
Quasi-criminal cases.

Besides such cases, the proceedings in the Courts of Summary Jurisdiction include a large group of quasi-criminal cases which are not contained in the Tables relating to criminal offences, but are set forth separately in Table 18. The principal subjects respecting which applications for orders were made in the quasi-criminal cases here referred to, were as follow :—

Sureties.
Maintenance.
Goods stolen (Restoration of)
Employers and Workmen.
Children (Attendance Orders under Education Act, Commitments to Industrial Schools, &c.).
Sanitary Law.
Dogs, Licences for.
Dangerous and neglected Structures (Orders relating to).

Comparative Tables.

The comparative tables on pages 30–37 set forth the state of crime in Ireland, and the proceedings in Criminal Courts during each of the twenty years 1887–1906; quinquennial averages under each head are also given.

These comparisons are contained in Tables A, B, C, D and E, and these tables refer, respectively, to the number of persons for trial at Assizes and Quarter Sessions; cases dealt with in Courts of summary jurisdiction; and all offences of an indictable character reported to the police. Table D gives a summary of Tables A, B, and C under condensed headings for the quinquennial averages and for the year 1906 only. In Table E, parts I. and II., which follows, is set forth the geographical distribution of crime and of the principal forms thereof during the last quinquennial period, as shown by the rates of crimes to population in each county in Ireland. Part I. of this table gives this information regarding the counties grouped according to their several degrees of criminality, under each of the selected heads, and Part II. shows the counties arranged in alphabetical order by provinces.

II.—General Review.

II.—GENERAL REVIEW.

Indictable offences for the whole of Ireland,* which had risen from 9,617 in 1904 to 9,728 in 1905, declined to 9,465 in the year 1906, now the subject of review. This represents a decrease of 1·6 per cent. as compared with 1904, and of 2·7 per cent. as compared with 1905. The rate represented by such crimes was 2·2 per 1,000 of the estimated population. The number of persons proceeded against for non-indictable offences was 9,422 less than in the year 1905, and 29,709 under the average for the ten years 1896–1905. The number of cases of drunkenness in 1906 is less than the number in 1905 by 2,706, and if the figures for drunkenness in 1906 are compared with the average number of such cases in the ten years, 1896–1905, it appears that a decrease, amounting to 12,891, has taken place.

Standards by which to measure prevalence of crime.

There are many offences which although non-indictable are of a distinctly criminal nature, and frequently lead up to more serious crimes, still the number of “Indictable Offences” may be taken as the more correct standard by which to measure the prevalence of crime in relation to the population, inasmuch as the non-indictable offences include very many which partake of a civil character. As stated above, cases obviously of the latter character—those in which orders are made to maintain certain civil rights, or to secure the discharge of civil duties—are now shown separately under the title of Quasi-Criminal Offences (Table 18, p. 97). These offences, which in the year 1905 amounted to about 22,000, numbered also about 22,000 in the year under review. Most of such cases prior to 1895 were found among "Cases disposed of Summarily," and were included in "Minor Offences" in the reports under the old system. Proceedings against weekly tenants in towns, which are especially numerous in Dublin, formed another group of the cases "Disposed of Summarily." These appeared both in the Civil and the Criminal statistics; they are now separated from the Criminal statistics proper. As they tended to increase the number of apparent crimes committed, they must be allowed for when instituting comparisons with the statistics for years anterior to 1895.

* See Note (*) pp. 32–3.

II.—
General
Review.

The following tabular summary shows the number of the serious and the minor offences in the year 1905 (exclusive of cases under the Criminal Law and Procedure (Ireland) Act, 1887), also their ratio to the population, compared with the corresponding particulars for 1905. The figures for cases disposed of summarily show the number of persons proceeded against in such cases; those for cases not disposed of summarily have reference to the number of crimes committed.

The following tabular statement indicates the rate per 10,000 of the estimated population in the middle of each year, represented by the number of cases in each class of "Indictable Offences" in Ireland during 1906, and each of the ten years preceding, with the average annual rates for those ten years. This statement affords a retrospect of the fluctuations which have taken place during the eleven years in the proportional number of the more serious offences in Ireland, and shows that, measured by the number of indictable offences committed in proportion to the population, the crime rate in 1906 was somewhat below that for the preceding year, but somewhat above the average for the ten years 1895-1905. The rate for offences against the person was below the average, and also below the rate for 1905. The rate for offences against property was above the average, but below the rate for 1905, and the rate for forgery and offences against the currency diminished from 0.17 per 10,000 of the estimated population in the year 1905 to 0.12 per 10,000 in the year 1906.

Results.*

Criminal Acts
in the years
1882-5,
1887-92,
and 1902-6.

On referring to Tables 29, 29(A), and 29(B), it will be seen that there was not one person proceeded against during the year 1906 under the Criminal Law and Procedure (Ireland) Act, 1887. This Act was in operation during the periods 1887-92 and 1901-1906, respectively. The Prevention of Crime Act, 1882, was in operation during the years 1882-5. Under these Acts, in addition to cases which might have been disposed of summarily by Magistrates in Petty Sessions, some cases were dealt with which, in ordinary course, would have been returned for trial at Quarter Sessions or Assizes. The circumstances being exceptional, it was decided to exclude all the cases under these Acts in the years 1882-5 and 1887-92 from the ordinary Tables and Summaries in the Reports for those years, and to give them in special Tables only, and a like course has been followed regarding the period 1901-1906. The cases referred to are also omitted from the retrospective Summary Tables in this volume. The subjoined tabular statement shows the number of persons proceeded against under these Acts during each of the years in which they were in operation:—

III.—NATURE OF CRIMES.

The heads under which the various kinds of serious crime are grouped are as follow:—

CLASS I.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON.

CLASS II.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITH VIOLENCE.

CLASS III.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITHOUT VIOLENCE.

CLASS IV.—MALICIOUS INJURIES TO PROPERTY.

CLASS V.—FORGERY AND OFFENCES AGAINST THE CURRENCY.

CLASS VI.—OTHER OFFENCES NOT INCLUDED IN THE ABOVE CLASSES.

The figures quoted in the remarks which follow regarding the crimes of each of the six classes here mentioned are taken from the returns of cases reported to the police. The total number of such crimes (indictable offences) in 1906 was 2,465, or 2·3 per 1,000 of the population, being 263 below the number for the preceding year, and 152 below that for the year 1904.

CLASS I.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON.

The offences of this class, which numbered 650 in 1902, fell to 614 in 1903, rose slightly to 623 in 1904, and declined in 1905 to 582, further declined to 526 in the year under notice.

During the year 1906 the number of cases of murder was 19 (6 of persons aged above one year, and 13 of infants aged one year and under), being 17 under the number for the preceding year, and 12 under the average for the 5 years 1901-1905. Of attempts to murder there were 11, as compared with 6 for the preceding year, 15 for the year 1904, and an average of 8 for the 5 years ending with 1905. The cases of manslaughter were 44 in number, being 1 under the number for the year 1905, and 2 above the average for the five years 1901-1905. The cases of murder, attempted murder, and manslaughter taken together were 74 in number, being 13 below the number in 1905, and 7 below the average for the five years 1901-1905.

Nature of Crimes.

The offences against property with violence reported to the police as committed during the year 1906 amounted to 783, being 27 over the number for the preceding year, 12 over that for the year 1904, and 69 over the average for the five years 1901–1905. The principal crimes in this class are burglary and house and shop breaking, amounting to 694 of the total of 783; the other cases include 68 robberies and assaults with intent to rob, and 15 cases of sacrilege.

CLASS III.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITHOUT VIOLENCE.

The offences in Class III. amounted to more than 75 per cent. of the total number of indictable offences reported to the Police in 1906: their number was 7,152, which was 158 below the number for the preceding year, and 118 below that for 1904. The offences in this class consist chiefly of cases of larceny.

CLASS IV.—MALICIOUS INJURIES TO PROPERTY.

The cases of malicious injuries to property numbered 533 in 1906, being 15 over the number recorded for the preceding year, 17 under the average for the five years 1901–1905, 233 under the average for the five years 1896–1900, and 217 under the average for the five years 1891–1895. These offences included 177 cases of arson, 45 of setting fire to crops, plantations, &c., and 65 of killing and maiming cattle. There were 246 cases of other malicious injuries to property. The corresponding numbers for the year 1905 were 197, 48, 73, and 301, respectively.

CLASS V.—FORGERY AND OFFENCES AGAINST THE CURRENCY.

Of offences of this class for the year 1906 the number was 53, being 8 below the average for the five years 1901–1905, and 21 under the number in the year 1905 the cases of coining and uttering counterfeit coin numbered 27, as compared with 28 in 1905.

CLASS VI.—OTHER INDICTABLE OFFENCES.

The indictable offences which were not included in any of the foregoing classes reported during the year 1906 numbered 419, or 9 below the average number under this heading for the five years 1901–1905. Among the 419 cases are 193 of Intimidation by Threatening Letters, Notices, or otherwise (showing a decrease of 64 as compared with the corresponding number for the preceding year). There were 129 attempts to commit suicide (being one over the number for the year 1905) and 22 assaults by firing shots into dwelling-houses.

indictable
offences.

OFFENCES DISPOSED OF SUMMARILY.

In Table 16 the offences disposed of summarily are classified into two groups distinguished as (A) and (B) respectively. Under head (A) some of the indictable offences, which have been discussed in the above remarks dealing with the police returns of crimes committed, will be found, namely, those in which the charges arising out of them were disposed of in Courts of Summary Jurisdiction. This number in 1906 was 3,875, or 41 per cent. of the total number of indictable offences, and of these 3,875 offences, 3,708 were cases of larceny.

All the non-indictable offences are included in Section (B). The number of persons charged with such offences, in 1906, amounted to 169,856, or 38.7 per 1,000 of the estimated population. The rate represented by offences of this class in 1904 was 40.6 per 1,000, and in 1905 it was 40.8 per 1,000. Although the cases in this Section are exclusive of those referred to on page 10 as quasi-criminal, they nevertheless comprise a large number of cases partaking of a civil rather than of a criminal character, such as some of the offences against the Police Regulations, offences in relation to dogs, Highway Acts, Stage and Hackney Carriage Regulations, Sanitary Laws, Labour Acts, Factory Acts, Shop Hours Acts, Elementary Education Act, &c.

From an examination of Section B of Table 16 it appears that in Ireland, in the year 1906, cases of drunkenness (including drunkenness and disorderly conduct), and assaults although decreasing in number, constituted 52·1 per cent. of the total offences committed. The number of assaults (comprising aggravated assaults, assaults on constables, and common assaults) in 1906 was 16,055, or 9·0 per cent. of all offences committed. The number of cases of drunkenness amounts to 77,262, being 43·1 per cent. of all offences committed, and 44·5 per cent. of all cases disposed of summarily. The assault cases decreased from 16,463 in 1905 to 16,055 in 1906, and the charges of drunkenness show a decrease of 2,706—from 79,968 in 1905 to 77,262 in 1906.

Assault cases disposed of summarily, and the cases of drunkenness (including drunkenness and disorderly conduct) in 1906, compared with each of the ten years preceding, also the average for these 10 years, are shown in the following tabular statement :—

—	1916	1917	1918	1919	1920	1921	1922	1923	1924	1925	Average Annual Number 1906- 1915.	1906

It may be observed from the above that both the assault cases and the cases of drunkenness were less numerous in 1906 than in any of the preceding ten years, cases of assault being 3,823, and cases of drunkenness and drunkenness in connection with disorderly conduct being 12,891 below the average for the decennium, 1896 to 1905.

Amongst other charges disposed of summarily there were 10,927 cases of nuisances and obstructions, 5,284 offences by owners and drivers of carts, 2,807 cases of cruelty to animals, 836 cases of cruelty to children, 697 offences against the game laws, 1,831 cases of malicious damage, and 286 offences against the Vaccination Acts. Compared with the figures for the preceding year, cases of cruelty to animals show a decrease of 82; there was an increase of 5 in cases of cruelty to children; the offences against the game laws decreased by 59 in 1906 as compared with 1905, and in cases of malicious damage there was an increase of 13.

QUASI-CRIMINAL OFFENCES.

Table 18 gives in detail the nature and number of cases coming under the head of quasi-criminal offences. The applications for orders in such cases in the year 1906 amounted to 31,979. Of these, 4,774 were cases for orders to find sureties to keep the peace or for good behaviour, and 6,466 related to children, including 5,185 for school attendance orders, 1,206 for Industrial School orders, and 6 for custody orders under the 1894 Act for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Amongst other quasi-criminal offences are 1,682 applications under Sanitary Law, an increase of 406 as compared with the number in 1905, the number for which year was 693 less than that for the year 1904.

IV.—GEOGRAPHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF CRIME.

The general distribution of crime for the years 1905 and 1906 throughout the County and City Districts into which Ireland is divided for criminal jurisdiction and police purposes, also the increase or decrease in each district in the latter year, is given in the following statement :—

IV.—
Geographical Distribution of Crime in 1900 and 1906.

As previously observed (see page 10), the most reliable index of the prevalence of crime in a country is the number of indictable offences. A comparison of the figures for the County and City Districts of Ireland shows that for such offences there was a decrease in 20 districts and an increase in 20.

Offences in each county. Tables 16 and 24.

Increases for indictable offences varied from 1 in Co. Waterford, 2 in each of the Cos. Wicklow and Sligo, 3 in each of the Cos. Donegal and Fermanagh, 6 each in Co. Dublin and City of Waterford, to 20 in Co. Kerry, 22 in the City of Limerick, 24 in Co. Armagh, 30 in Co. Londonderry and 53 in the City of Cork.

Decreases for indictable crime varied from 129 in Belfast City, 84 in the Dublin Metropolitan Police District, 45 in Co. Galway, 44 in the City of Londonderry, 37 in Co. Meath, 35 in Tipperary, S.R., and 31 in Co. Limerick, to 9 in Co. Kildare, 8 in Cork W.R., 4 in each of King's Co. and Antrim, 2 in Cos. Longford and Clare, and one in Cork, E.R., Leitrim, and Mayo.

The non-indictable offences show an increase in 10 districts, and a decrease in 30.

The numbers of all forms of offences, taken collectively, show an increase in 11 districts and a decrease in 29.

Offences in each county per 100,000 of population.

The various districts are arranged from the lowest to the highest rate per 100,000 inhabitants (according to the Census of 1901) for each group, and for the total of all kinds of crime in the year 1906, in the following lists:—

IV.—
Geographical Distribution of Crime.

The social conditions which obtain in all cities have a tendency to place them in unfavourable positions in the list of criminality, as compared with rural communities, as may be seen in the list on page 16, nevertheless there is a reduction in the rates for indictable offences in each of the Cities of Belfast and Londonderry, and in the Dublin Metropolitan Police District for the year 1906. In Belfast the rate for all indictable offences fell in 1905 from 5·8 per 1,000 of the population, according to the Census of 1901, to 5·5 per 1,000 in the year 1906. The reduction in Belfast is due to the decrease in "simple larcenies and minor larcenies," which declined from 1,683 in the year 1905, to 1,460 in the period now the subject of review. In Londonderry the rate for all indictable offences fell from 2·9 per 1,000 in 1905 to 1·8 per 1,000 in 1906. This reduction in Londonderry is explained by the deterrent effect caused by the success of the Police in bringing offenders to justice during the year under notice. The excess of the relative proportion of crime in large town districts as compared with the total of crime in Ireland generally, or in those districts where the populations are either altogether rural or where residents in towns form a comparatively small portion of the community, is further illustrated in the following statement. The proportion of offences under certain headings is shown for those towns having, in 1901, a population of twenty thousand or upwards, for all other districts, and for the whole of Ireland:—

IV.—
Geographical Distribution of Crimes.

Of the offences of all kinds in Ireland in 1906, amounting to 179,121, 58,256, or 32·5 per cent., were committed in the towns referred to in the foregoing statement, although the aggregate population of these towns (923,000) constituted only 20·7 per cent. of the population of Ireland in the year 1901. The total offences represented a ratio of 6,311·6 per 100,000 of the population in the towns, against 3,418·1 in the remainder of Ireland. Cases of drunkenness, notwithstanding that they are less by 2,706 than in the previous year, still constitute a very large proportion of the offences committed.

Distribution of crimes in counties. Comparative Table E, Parts I. and II.

The geographical distribution by counties (including the towns situated therein) of the principal crimes (indictable offences) or groups of crimes during the five years 1902-1906 will be found in Comparative Table E, Part II., page 40. In this the counties are arranged in alphabetical order by provinces. In Table E, Part I., the counties are arranged in order for each class of crime from that where there was the least to that where there was the greatest prevalence of crime, and in some columns the counties are grouped under certain degrees of criminality. From the first column in this Part, which shows for the five years 1902-1906 the average annual number of indictable offences per 100,000 of the estimated mean population, it will be observed that the rates range from 60·45 per 100,000 in Mayo to 707·98 in Dublin.* In 11 counties and ridings the rate was under 100; in 20 it ranged between 100 and 200; and in 3—Kildare (259·26), Antim† (414·68), and, as above stated, Dublin—it exceeded 200. The rates for "Crimes against Property," "Crimes of Violence," "Crimes against Morals" and "Suicides" are given in columns 2, 3, 4, and 6, respectively.

A comparison of the average rates represented by cases of drunkenness for the quinquennial period 1902-1906, shows that in the County of Mayo the lowest rate, 1,109·73 per 100,000 of the Census population, was recorded. The rate for cases of drunkenness in Queen's County was the highest, being 2,816·94 per 100,000, or more than two and a half times the rate for the County of Mayo.

V.—PROCEDURE FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF CRIME.

V.—Procedure for the Punishment
of Crime.

In Ireland, in the majority of cases, the Police act as public prosecutors, and institute the preliminary proceedings in connection with prosecutions for most of the serious offences. The offices of Crown and Sessional Crown Solicitor are now amalgamated, and the duties of the united offices are performed by a Crown Solicitor in the Counties of Carlow, Cavan, Down, Dublin, Galway, Kerry, Kildare, Leitrim, Limerick County and City, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Monaghan, Queen's County, Roscommon, Tipperary, Waterford, Westmeath, Wexford, and Wicklow. During the year 1905 the office of Sessional Crown Solicitor for Antrim and Belfast was added to the duties performed by the present Crown Solicitor, and in Cork (County and City) a change was also made, the Crown Solicitorship being divided into two appointments, one for the Cork East Riding and one for the West Riding. No change of offices has as yet taken place in the remaining Counties, Crown business at Assizes or Quarter Sessions being discharged by Crown or Sessional Crown Solicitors, respectively.

In Tables 10, 11, and 12, p. 76, the names of districts proclaimed under special Acts of Parliament, and the titles of the Acts under which the proclamations were issued, will be found. Districts

Comparative Table B affords a retrospect for the twenty years 1887-1906, of the number of persons tried summarily* and the nature of offences for each year during the period, with quinquennial averages. Notes are prefixed to Tables 15 and 16, explanatory of these Tables and consequently of Comparative Table B. In connection with the subject of Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, attention may be again called to the Table (18) of Quasi-Criminal cases dealt with already at page 14.

The appeals to Quarter Sessions from convictions by Magistrates will be found in Table 19. These numbered 511 in 1905 and 457 in the period under review. Of the total, 166 were affirmed, 114 were reversed, 61 were varied, and 116 were otherwise disposed of.

VI.—CRIMINALS AND OTHERS IN CONFINEMENT AND KNOWN CRIMINALS AT LARGE.

CHARACTER OF PERSONS PROSECUTED.

Certain particulars regarding the previous character of those persons prosecuted during the year 1906 will be found in Table 25, an explanation of the principle of classification adopted being prefixed to the Table. From this Table it appears that of 2,631 persons proceeded against for indictable offences and not tried summarily, 813, or 30·9 per cent., were known to be of bad character, and 1,818, or 69·1 per cent., came under the head of "previous character good or unknown," and of the 173,622 persons tried summarily for indictable and non-indictable offences, 159,841 or 92·1 per cent., are entered under the heading "previous character good, or unknown."

SUSPECTED PERSONS AT LARGE.

The number of suspected persons at large on the first Tuesday in April, 1906, is stated in Table 26. The total number is 1,218, comprising 423 thieves, 49 receivers, and 176 persons otherwise habitually engaged in crime, with 570 other suspected persons. Besides these there were 25 persons under the supervision of the police.

It appears from the above statement that there were 36,047 persons admitted to places of confinement during the year 1906, and that of these 24,494, or about two-thirds, were males, and 11,553, or about one-third, were females. Among these 36,047 there were 2,442 lunatics admitted into asylums, and 1,310 children admitted to industrial schools; so that 3,752, or 10·4 per cent. of the total admissions to places of detention, were of persons who cannot be considered as criminals. In addition to these exceptions there are some lunatics and inebriates included among the admissions to prisons and bridewells who were only temporarily detained prior to admission to lunatic asylums, or to the State Inebriate Reformatory, see Table 3.

The receptions of prisoners in 1904 numbered 32,377, the number rose in 1905 to 33,046 and declined in 1906 to 32,137. Compared with 1905 the admissions of criminal and dangerous lunatics to Lunatic Asylums shows a decrease of 170; the number of children admitted to Industrial Schools increased from 1,294 in 1905 to 1,310 in 1906, and the admissions to Reformatories were 138 in 1906, as compared with 171 in 1905.

The number of convicted prisoners (other than those committed for naval and military offences) committed to the local prisons, bridewells, and convict prisons during the year 1906 (see Table 35) is shown by age-periods in the following tabular statement:—

Ages.	Total of both Sexes.	Men and Boys.	Women and Girls.	Proportion per cent.
				Men and Boys.	Women and Girls.

Fifty years and under sixty,	1,919	1,139	780	5.9	8.4
Sixty years and upwards,	1,325	951	374	5.0	4.0

The foregoing tabular statement shows that there were only 10 girls under 16 years of age—all of whom were aged 12 and under 16—among the 9,384 convicted females committed to prison. There was a decrease of 652 in the number of convicted females committed to prison in the year 1906 as compared with the year 1905; the number of boys under 16 years was 53, and of the 53 there was but one under 12 years of age. The total number of convicted males committed to prison was 19,002, or more than twice the number of females. Of the males 10.9 per cent., and of the females 12.4 per cent. were over 50 years of age. The number of prisoners received into each prison will be found in Table 30, and particulars as to the disposal of prisoners in Tables 31a and 31b. Particulars as to the nature of sentences are given in Table 32, and details regarding the length of these sentences in Table 33.

Previous convictions
of prisoners.
Table 34.

It may be seen, from Table 34, that previously convicted, or habitual criminals, form a very large proportion of those admitted to prison. Of 28,386 convicted prisoners admitted to the local prisons, bridewells, and convict prisons during the year 1906, no less than 22,103 had been previously convicted. Of these, 2,712 had been once previously convicted, 1,837 twice, 1,560 thrice, 1,375 four times, 1,429 five times, 3,136 six to ten times, 3,657 from eleven to twenty times, and 6,407 above twenty times. It will be observed that a very large proportion are included in the last two periods, the figures showing that there were 10,064 committals of persons (or 35.5 per cent. of the total number of convicted prisoners admitted to prison during the year), who had previously been convicted upwards of ten times, as compared with 9,015, or 30.8 per cent. in the preceding year.

From the above tabular statement it appears that, while 35.1 per cent. of convicted prisoners committed to prison in 1906 were absolutely illiterate, only 12.7 per cent. of the general population in 1901, aged 12 years and upwards, were in a similar condition of ignorance. It is, however, to be borne in mind that the Census figures here quoted are for the population of all ranks, and are not limited to the classes which furnish the great bulk of the prisoners.

The previous occupations of convicted prisoners are given in Table 38, but as the classification of occupations is different in several respects from that employed by the Census Commissioners in their report, it is impossible to institute comparisons between the occupations of prisoners and those of the general population in a manner similar to that adopted above regarding education. It will, however, be observed that, of the 28,386 prisoners convicted, 978 belonged to the domestic servant class; 14,410—by far the largest number for any one group—to the labouring classes; 1,064 to the class of factory workers; 3,102 to the class of mechanics and skilled workers; 80 were foremen or overlookers of labour; 194 belonged to the class of shopmen, shopwomen, and clerks; 2,810 to the class of shopkeepers and dealers; 4 to professional employments; 273 to the class of sailors, marines, and soldiers; and 3,678 (or 39.2 per cent. of the 9,384 female prisoners) are classified as prostitutes. It is to be noted that some of the prisoners were committed to prison more than once during the year, and that the statistics have reference to the number of commitments of convicted prisoners, not to the number of individuals committed.

Reformatory
Schools.

The foregoing statement at foot of the page preceding shows that the number of children on the rolls of Reformatory Schools in Ireland at the end of 1906 was 562 (523 boys and only 39 girls), or 10 under the number at the close of the preceding year, which was 10 above that for 31st December, 1904. There were 9 less in the schools under sentence, and 2 less on license than in the year preceding. Two of those on the rolls at the close of 1906 had absconded with sentence unexpired. There was one such case at the end of the year 1905.

The number committed during the year was 138, showing a diminution of 33 as compared with the committals for the preceding year. The number of boys committed in 1906 was 127, or 37 less than in the year 1905, and the number of girls 11, or 4 more than the number for 1905.

The parentage, &c., of the young persons committed in 1906 to Reformatories in Ireland is shown in the following table :—

	Boys.	Girls.	Proportion per cent.
			Boys.	Girls.
Total committed,	127	11	100	100
Illegitimate, deserted, or both parents destitute or criminal,	8	2	6.3	18.2
Both parents alive, not included in foregoing,	87	3	68.5	27.3
One parent dead,	31	6	24.4	54.5
Total orphans,	1	—	0.8	—

Only two of the 11 girls and eight of the 127 boys come under the head of the illegitimate, the deserted, and those having both parents destitute or criminal. Those having both parents living, and who are not included in the foregoing, formed 68.5 per cent. of the boys and 27.3 per cent. of the girls. The orphans (including those having one parent dead), were 25.2 per cent. of the boys and 54.5 per cent. of the girls.

The state of instruction (on admission) of children committed to Reformatory Schools is shown in the following summary :—

	Boys.	Girls.	Proportion per cent.
			Boys.	Girls.
Total committed,	127	11	100	100
Neither read nor write,	41	3	32.3	27.3
Read, or read and write imperfectly,	81	7	63.8	63.6
Read and write well,	5	1	3.9	9.1
Superior instruction,	—	—	—	—

The want of education amongst these youthful offenders may be seen in the above summary, from which it appears that only one of the 11 girls and 5 of the 127 boys admitted could read and write well.

The total number of Industrial Schools in 1906 was 69, being equal to the number in 1905. Of the 69 schools, 24 were in Munster, 18 in Leinster, 14 in Ulster, and 13 in Connaught.

Table 45.

From the foregoing statement it appears that the number of children (8,372) on the rolls of Industrial Schools in Ireland at the end of 1906 was 49 over that for the close of the preceding year, which was 97 under the number at the end of 1904. Of the total number, 8,037 were in the schools undergoing their sentence of detention, 15 were retained in school with their own consent, although their sentences had expired, 316 were on licence, and 4 (3 boys and one girl) had absconded.

The following table shows the ages of the children placed in Industrial schools in the year 1906:—

10 and under 12 years,	307	174	133	26.4	20.4
12 years and upwards,	189	165	24	15.9	12.9

During the year 1906 the number of children admitted to Industrial Schools was 1,310, showing an increase of 16 as compared with the admissions for the preceding year. The number of girls admitted rose from 642 in 1905 to 651 in 1906, and the number of boys rose from 652 in 1905 to 659 in 1906.

It may be seen that 57.7 per cent. of the boys admitted during last year and 66.7 per cent. of the girls were brought under training in these schools before they had reached the age of ten years.

CRIMINAL AND DANGEROUS LUNATICS.

The following summary shows the judgments or orders under which criminal and dangerous lunatics were committed to asylums in Ireland in 1905:—

JUDGMENT OR ORDER BY WHICH COMMITTED.	Number.	Proportion per cent.
Total committed during year,	2,442	100·0
Committed to asylums by Justices as dangerous,	2,345	96·0
Transmitted from prisons by Lord Lieutenant's warrant:—
Certified insane after trial,	49	2·0
Found insane on arraignment,	10	0·4
Became insane after commitment and before trial,	8	0·3
Special verdict of guilty, but insane,	7	0·3
Admitted under Army Act, 1881, sec. 91,	19	0·8
Admitted under Navy Enlistment Act, 1884, sec. 3,	4	0·2

It will be seen from the above that 96·0 per cent. of the lunatics were committed direct to asylums by Justices as dangerous. Only 3·0 per cent. were transmitted from prisons by Lord Lieutenant's warrant; 19, or 0·8 per cent., were committed under the Army Act, 1881; and 4 under the Navy Enlistment Act, 1884, sec. 3.

Tables 48, 49, and 50 give statistics as to criminal lunatics, and statistics relating to dangerous lunatics will be found in Tables 51 and 52.

VII.—POLICE ESTABLISHMENTS.

The following statement shows the number of the Police Force in Ireland in 1905, compared with that in 1904, at the periods of the year stated in the tables:—

A column in Table 13 of the Appendix shows the proportion which the number of effective force of Constabulary in Ireland bears to the population (according to the Census of 1901) in the various counties, and in provincial towns with a separate Police force. In the following counties the proportion of Police to population according to the Census of 1901 is the smallest.

Astoria,	12 in every 10,000 of the population in 1901.
Dowry,	12 " "
Londonderry,	13 " "

The proportion of Police in the principal Cities and Towns is as follows:—

Dublin Metropolitan Police District,	28 " "
Londonderry,	27 " "
Waterford,	26 " "
Cork,	23 " "
Limerick,	22 " "

The proportion of Police, excluding County Inspectors and District Inspectors, but including Depot and Reserve Force, to the estimated population of Ireland in 1906 was 24 in every 10,000 of the people.

In the Royal Irish Constabulary members of the different branches in the Force are selected for special duty when necessary; but in the Dublin Metropolitan Police, an entire division, consisting of 39 effective men (13 detective officers, 10 Constables, and 16 Sergeants), 4 Inspectors, and one Superintendent, are employed as detectives.

In the following table is shown the total cost (including Appropriations in aid) of the Police Establishments in Ireland for the year ended 31st March, 1906, as compared with that for the preceding year:—

Notes to Tables 1, 3, and 5.

(a.) The titles of offences (Column 1) are much condensed. The fuller titles, and the offences comprised under each head, are given on page 36 of the Criminal Statistics for 1895.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same Assizes or Sessions for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation; and the rule to be followed is to select that for which the proceedings were carried to the furthest stage—to trial if there were several indictments, to conviction and sentence if prisoner was tried on several charges. If there are several convictions, the offence selected is that for which the heaviest punishment was awarded. If the final result of proceedings on two or more charges is the same, the more serious offence (as measured by the maximum penalty allowed by the law) appears in the Tables.

(c.) Where, in addition to the offence thus selected for detailed tabulation, the same person is prosecuted for other offences of a distinct character, and charged in separate indictments, the number of these additional charges is given in columns 23 to 25 of the Tables, column 23 giving the total number of such charges, column 24 the number resulting in convictions, and column 25 the number for which separate sentences (not concurrent with those in columns 11 to 18) are passed. Only distinct offences charged in separate indictments are included in these columns; additional indictments merely varying the form of the charge, and additional charges appearing as counts in the same indictment, are excluded.

(d.) Where a person is prosecuted for one offence and convicted for another (e.g. committed for murder and convicted of manslaughter), the case appears only under the offence of which he was convicted.

(e.) Columns 2, 3, and 4 ("Numbers for Trial") include only such cases as actually come before the Assizes or Quarter Sessions. Persons who die, escape from prison, abscond while on bail, or are removed to an asylum before trial, are not included.

(f.) Column 13 ("Imprisonment") does not include sentences of imprisonment in default of payment of fine, or in default of finding sureties.

(g.) Columns 16 and 20 ("Fine") include all cases where payment of a fine is imposed as the sentence or part of the sentence, whether the fine is actually paid or not.

(h.) Columns 18 and 22 ("Recognizances") include cases where recognizances are required, whether with or without sureties, and, if sureties are required, whether they are found or not.

(i.) Columns 19 to 23 are for those cases where more than one punishment is imposed for the same offence. Thus, if a person convicted of larceny is sentenced to be imprisoned and whipped, the imprisonment appears in Column 13 the whipping in column 21.

§ The Officers and Constables of the G Division are employed as "Detectives."

(a) Under the Police (Corporation) Act, 1900 (62 & 63 Vic., c. 86) the City boundary has been extended so as to comprise the Urban Districts of New Kilmainham, Drumcondra, Clontarf, and Shallowford, Clontarf, and certain specified portions of the County. And under Section 26 of the same Act, the Lord Lieutenant has extended, by Order in Council of 23rd October, 1901, the Metropolitan Police District, so as to include so much of the aforesaid area as had not hitherto been comprised within such District.

(b) Excludes 2 Sergeants and 20 Constables employed in Government Departments and in private service with public bodies.

Notes to Tables 15, 16, 17.

(a.) These Tables include only offences tried summarily. All indictable offences where the Court does not actually assume the power to determine the case summarily are excluded. Further, these Tables include only cases where the proceedings are criminal—that is, lead if successful to a conviction. There are a large number of cases which are quasi-criminal in character, but where the procedure is by complaint, leading, not to a conviction, but to the making of an order. These are provided for in a separate Table—No. 18.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons presented, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same time for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation, and the rules followed are the same as in Tables 1 to 5 (see note (b) page 64).

(c.) The offences included under each of the titles of offences in Column 1 are stated on page 46 of the Criminal Statistics for the year 1895.

Notes to Table 15.

(d.) Table 15 corresponds to Tables 1, 3, and 5, and (as regards length of sentences) to Tables 2 and 4.

(e.) Column 5, "Committed to Industrial Schools," includes only those committals to Industrial Schools where an offence is charged—i.e., committals under Section 13 of the Industrial Schools (Ireland) Act, 1868. Other committals to Industrial Schools where the proceedings are not criminal appear in Table 18, and also in Tables 45 to 47.

(f.) Columns 7 to 13, "Imprisonment," do not include the preliminary imprisonment in Reformatory School cases, nor terms of imprisonment in default of paying fine or of finding sureties.

(g.) Column 14, "Reformatory School," contains all cases of persons sentenced to Reformatory School detention, whether they are actually admitted to a reformatory or not. Details as to cases actually received in reformatories are given in Table 41.

(h.) Columns 16 and 19, "Fine," include all cases where a fine is imposed, whether the fine is paid or not. The number of persons committed to prison in default of paying fines is given in Tables 32 and 33.

(i.) Columns 17, 17a, and 20, "Recognizances," include all cases where the defendant is ordered to find sureties, whether the sureties are found or not. It must be remembered, however, that the Table applies only to convictions, and that it does not include cases where a person is required to find sureties upon complaint. These cases are included in Table 18.

Note to Table 16.

(k.) This Table corresponds to Table 6.

Note to Table 17.

(l.) Section (A) of this Table gives the ages of all persons convicted summarily of indictable offences; Section (B) however, contains only persons apprehended and convicted; persons convicted on summons have to be excluded on account of the difficulty of ascertaining their ages.

POLICE RETURNS.

Notes to Table 20.

(a.) Column 1, "Offences."—The titles of the offences are the same as in Tables 1 to 5.

(b.) Column 2, "Number of Crimes committed."—This column includes all crimes reported to the police within the year whether committed by the same or different persons, and whether any apprehension takes place within the year or not.

(c.) If there is a committal or conviction within the year, the Table shows the nature of the crime as judicially determined. Failing this, the charge which is named in the summons or warrant on which the prisoner is arrested is taken as determining the crime. If there are no proceedings and no apprehension, the character of the crime is judged by the facts so far as known to the police.

(d.) In columns 3 to 21 the number of persons proceeded against is given, not the number of crimes or charges. A person charged at the same time with several offences appears as one person only. In selecting the offence for tabulation the same principle is followed as in Tables 1 to 5—the charge resulting in conviction or committal for trial has preference to the others; and subject to this the more serious offence is selected. If there are two or more convictions at the same time, that for which the heavier sentence is inflicted is regarded as the more serious. These columns include only cases disposed of within the year. Cases pending at the end of the year are reserved for inclusion in the following year's tables.

(e.) Columns 7, 8, 15, and 16, "Discharged," contain cases where the Magistrate does not assume power to try the case summarily, but discharges the accused under Section 15 of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, or Section 25 of the Indictable Offences (Ireland) Act, 1849.

(f.) Columns 9 and 17, "Tried Summarily and Discharged," contain cases where, after the Magistrate has decided to deal summarily with the case, the charge is dismissed or withdrawn.

(g.) Columns 10 and 18, "Tried Summarily and Convicted," include cases dealt with under the Probation of First Offenders Act, 1887.

(h.) Columns 11 and 19, "Committed for Trial and sent to Prison," include all persons committed to prison to await trial, whether they are subsequently released on bail or not.

Notes to Table 21.

(i.) The titles of the offences are the same as in Table 15 (b), and, as in that Table, only criminal proceedings are included.

(j.) Notes (e) and (d) above apply to this Table.

(k.) Columns 7 and 11, "Convicted," include cases dealt with under the Probation of First Offenders Act, 1887.

PRISONS.

Notes to Table 30.

(a.) This Table gives the numbers of each class of prisoners received in each prison during the year. In the case of prisoners committed for trial, it is necessary to distinguish between those who were and those who were not previously in prison on remand; otherwise in making up the total the same person would, in many cases, count twice—as a remand prisoner and as a prisoner committed for trial. Similarly, convicted prisoners have to be divided into those who were and those who were not in detention before trial. The figures of the cases which thus appear a second or a third time are printed in italics, columns 3, 5, and 7. The total of criminal prisoners, column 10, is obtained by adding the figures in the other columns, 2, 4, 6, 8, and 9.

The Table gives only the first receptions of prisoners on remand, committal for trial, &c. When prisoners are transferred from one prison to another, they appear only in the return from the prison in which they are first received, not in that from the prison to which they are removed. Since convicts, as a rule, undergo some detention in local prisons before transfer to a convict prison, they appear as receptions only in the local prison returns.

(b.) Column 12, "Debtors," comprises all persons who are treated as debtors in prison, including bankrupts imprisoned to prevent absconding, &c.

Notes to Table 31.

SECTION (a).

(a.) This Table gives, in columns 2 to 9, the number of prisoners on remand who are disposed of within the year. It, therefore, includes those in prison on remand on 1st January, but not those on remand and still undisposed of on 31st December. Those who after remand are discharged appear in column 3, those convicted summarily in column 4, those committed for trial in column 5.

(d.) Similar remarks apply to columns 10 to 15. Prisoners waiting trial on 1st January are included; those waiting trial and not disposed of on 31st December are excluded.

SECTION (b).

(e.) This Table shows only the final disposal of each convicted prisoner released or removed during the year. Each case appears only under the prison from which the prisoner is finally discharged or removed. If a prisoner has been removed from one prison to another, his case is included in the figures for the last prison only.

Notes to Table 32.

(f.) This Table includes all cases received under sentence during the year from 1st January to 31st December, whether in prison before conviction or not.

(g.) All prisoners appear in the return from the prison in which they are first received after sentence, and not in the return for any prison to which they may be subsequently removed.

(h.) Column 5 contains only cases where a licence is forfeited on conviction by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction for an offence under section 5 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1871, as amended by Section 4 of the Penal Servitude Act, 1891. Other cases of forfeiture and all cases of revocation of licences are included in column 21.

Note to Table 33.

(i.) In this Table two sentences passed at the same time and ordered to run consecutively are treated as one sentence equal in length to the two added together. If the sentences differ in character, e.g. a sentence of imprisonment with hard labour, and a sentence of imprisonment without hard labour, the entry is made in the column for the severer form of punishment, i.e. in this case, imprisonment with hard labour. In the case of concurrent sentences, the longer only is given.

Note to Table 35.

(j.) Where the actual date of birth is known, the age is given for the birthday immediately preceding the date of reception in prison. In other cases the age is given as nearly as possible.

JUDICIAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND

FOR THE

YEAR 1906.

PART II.—CIVIL STATISTICS.

R E P O R T

HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN CAMPBELL, EARL OF ABERDEEN, K.T.,

&c., &c., &c.,

LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

I have the honour to submit to Your Excellency the following as my Report on the Judicial Statistics of Ireland—Part II, Civil Statistics—for the year 1906:—

Information regarding the Statistics of the Civil Jurisdiction of all Courts in Ireland for the year 1906 has been compiled from the Tables appended to this Report; these Tables commence on page 34.

There are two groups of Courts and Offices in Ireland, viz:—That of the Central Administration of Justice, and that of the Local Administration of Justice. The Courts of the Local Administration of Justice are divided into larger and smaller District Administration of Justice, according to the nature and extent of the Special Jurisdiction.

Arrangement of Tables.

I.—CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.

The High Court of Justice and the Central Appellate Jurisdiction are included in the Central Administration of Justice.

The High Court of Justice in Ireland includes the Chancery and King's Bench Divisions and the Court of the Irish Land Commission. The Courts of Exchequer, Common Pleas, the Probate and Matrimonial Courts, the High Court of Admiralty, and the Court of Bankruptcy were merged with the Court of the then Queen's Bench under the Irish Judicature Act of the year 1897.

Central Administration of Justice.

The Central Appellate Jurisdictions include His Majesty's Court of Appeal, Ireland; Court for Cases Reserved for Judges of the King's Bench Division; the Privy Council in Ireland; and the House of Lords. These are grouped along with the other Central Jurisdictions, as being closely connected with them. From Table 9, Criminal Statistics, Part I., it would appear that there were no proceedings in the Court for Crown Cases Reserved.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE—CHANCERY DIVISION.

The following summary shows the Court business in the Chancery Division during the years 1905 and 1906, with the increase or decrease under each head in the latter year.

In the office of the Registrars of the Chancery Division the number of Side Bar Orders was 49, and equal to the number in 1905.

* Two such Appeals in the year 1906 and one in 1905 were argued before Judge Ross.

As in the year 1905, there were 4 appeals from the County Court equitable jurisdiction up to £500 property and £30 a year in land. Of these one was argued before the Hon. Mr. Justice Barton, and one before the Hon. Mr. Justice Rom; both appeals were dismissed with costs, and there were two appeals pending at the close of the year 1906.

The new Minor or Infancy Matters in the year were 19, relating to 49 Wards, as compared with 23 new Matters and 64 new Wards in 1905.

Table 5.*

Particulars are given regarding 24 petitions on the higher scale and 8 petitions on the lower scale set down for hearing before the Master of the Rolls in the return of the Secretary at the Rolls (included in Table 5).

*Crown and Exchequer
Offices.
Table 6.*

The Clerk of the Crown and Exchequer returned 2,339 as the number of proceedings in the Crown and Exchequer Offices for the year 1906, being an increase of 149 as compared with the number for the year 1905.

LAND JUDGE.

*Land Judge
Registry's
Returns.
Table 8.*

In the year ended 1st November, 1906, the gross annual value of Estates sold under the Land Judge was £24,033, and the amount of purchase-money of such Estates was £400,719 Cash. These sums are the proceeds of the sale of Estates of various classes, that is to say:—Estates which the owner in the matter held in fee-simple or in which he had only a life estate, or other terminable interest, the purchase-moneys in such cases only representing the value of the owner's interest. A large proportion of the Estates were, however, sold to the occupying tenants, and in these cases the purchase-moneys include not only the value of the owner's interest in the estate, but the value of the superior interests which, under the Land Purchase Acts, it is necessary to redeem so as to vest the fee-simple in the tenants.

The number of Matters in reference to which proceedings were originated before the Land Judge by Petition or statements of facts was 41 during the year ended 1st November, 1906, being 8 under the number for the year 1905.

*Deeds and Affidavits
Office.
Table 7.*

In the year ended 31st October, 1906, there were 34 petitions filed, being 11 under the number in 1905, and 10 under that for 1904, only 9 being by owners. The number of affidavits filed (1,585) is 100 under that for 1905, and 388 below the number for 1904.

*Keeper of Deeds.
Table 9.*

In the year ended 1st November, 1906, the return of proceedings made by the Keeper of Deeds shows that there were 33 abstracts of title lodged, and the number of deeds or other documents lodged was 1,525; in 1905 the corresponding numbers were 38 and 2,845, respectively.

KING'S BENCH DIVISION.

*Business in King's Bench
Division.
Tables 10,
11, 12, 13,
and 14.*

The return of the proceedings at the Plea side of the King's Bench Division is arranged by quarterly divisions in a single table, although the figures have been supplied, by three officers—the Master of the Court; the Registrar; and the Clerk of Judgments, Records, and Writs.

Writs of summons, which were 17,725 in 1902, fell in 1903 to 17,715, rose to 17,750 in 1904, further rose to 20,275 in 1905, but fell to 16,150 in 1906. The number of cases which actually came to trial by jury in Dublin in 1906 was 217, being 26 under the number in 1905, and 38 under that for 1904; the amount of money recovered at these trials, which in 1902 was £25,831, fell in 1903 to £15,966, further declined in 1904 to £15,366, rose to £18,876 in 1905, and further rose to £26,554 in 1906. In reference to these figures it may be observed that the amount and importance of Judicial business in Ireland, cannot be adequately estimated from the mere amounts either claimed or recovered by suitors.

Of the other business in the Division on the Plea side there were 15,196 affidavits, showing a decrease of 540 as compared with the number in the year 1905, which was 374 over the number for the year 1904.

In Table 12 the return made by the Registrar of the proceedings at Chambers and before a single Judge in Court is given. This shows that the number of summonses in 1906 was 269, or 17 over the number in 1905; the number of motions on notice before a single Judge was 727, or 193 under that for the year 1905, and 258 under the number for the year 1904; and the ex parte motions (including consent orders) granted, were 1,371, or 29 over the number in 1905.

The proceedings as to applications to have cases remitted to County Courts are shown in the following statement:—

Cases remitted to County Courts. Table 16.

It appears from the above statement that the number of applications to remit cases to the County Courts was 389, showing a decrease of 25 as compared with the year 1905, the number for which year was 2 under that for 1904. Of the 324 applications granted, 119 were in cases of contract and 205 in cases of tort.

The civil business of the Judges of the High Court on Circuit for the year 1906 is dealt with at pages 21–23.

The King's Coroner, Attorney, and Master of the Crown Office, has made the usual return of the business at the Crown side of the King's Bench. See Table 17.

Proceedings at the Crown side. Table 17.

There were no election petitions in the years 1904, 1905, or 1906.

Election Petitions. Table 18. Acknowledgments by Married Women. Table 19.

During 1906, as in the years 1903, 1904, and 1905, there were no acknowledgments by married women filed. Under the provisions of the Conveyancing Act, 1882 (45 & 46 Vic., cap. 39, sec. 7), no Certificates and Affidavits of Acknowledgment are filed, save such as relate to Deeds executed before the commencement of the Act.

During the year 1906 one Perpetual Commissioner was appointed: since the year 1902 no other such appointment has been made. There were 3 Special Commissions granted in 1906, the number of Special Commissions granted in 1905 being 10.

During the year 1906, 331 writs were issued on the Revenue side, as compared with 344 in 1905; the affidavits filed numbered 42; and there were 26 Side Bar Rules.

OFFICES OF REGISTRATION.

The following tabular statement gives the number of judgments, &c., registered in the Registry of Judgments Office in 1906, as compared with the year 1905:—

REGISTRY OF JUDGMENTS OFFICE.	1905.	1906.	Increase, 1906.	Decrease, 1906.

The above statement shows that there was a substantial increase of the business in the Court during the year 1906, the number of Superior Court Judgments registered being 3,020, or 433 above those registered in the year 1905, and 649 in excess of the number registered in the year 1904.

None of the Irish Judgments registered in 1906 were obtained before 15th July, 1850. Of the 62 Judgments re-registered, 59 were obtained before the 15th July, 1850, and 3 were obtained since that date.

Cases of Lis Pendens registered fell from 951 in 1904 to 863 in 1905, but rose in the year under review to 1,919. The number of Land Commission Lis Pendens cases registered during the years 1904, 1905, and 1906 have largely increased this category of business.

When the number of judgments registered is compared with the number of executions issued on Judgments in the King's Bench Division, it appears that 4,794 judgment executions are returned in the proceedings in Master's Office as entered up, and that 3,020 judgments were registered in the Registry of Judgments Office.

The lunatics under the control of the Lord Chancellor numbered 864 at the close of the year 1906, this number being 31 in excess of the number at the close of 1905, and showing an increase of 57 as compared with the number on 31st December, 1904.

KING'S BENCH DIVISION—PROBATE AND MATRIMONIAL BUSINESS.

The Probate business during the year 1906 is compared with that of 1905 in the following tabular statement:—

Table 39.

A Return of the Proceedings in the Supreme Courts of Appeal, during the year 1906, made by the Registrar, with the exception of those in the Court for Crown Cases Reserved, is shown in Tables 39-42.

There were 65 appeals from final judgments from Divisions of the High Court of Justice heard and judgment delivered by His Majesty's Court of Appeal in Ireland during the year 1906, 37 of which appeals were from the Chancery, and 28 from the King's Bench Division. The appeals from other Judges or Courts heard were 24; of these 5 were appeals from Local Bankruptcy Courts, 3 were Registry (of Voters) Appeals, 8 were Workmen's Compensation Act Appeals, 5 were appeals from the Irish Land Commission, and one appeal was by case stated, Sec. 8 County Courts Appeals (Ireland) Act, 1889. There were, moreover, 20 original motions heard. The Judgments delivered were 174. In 91 of these the Judgment below was affirmed; in 74 it was reversed; and in 9 it was varied. The Court sat on 124 days.

Privy

Table 41.

The petitions to the Privy Council in Ireland against Provisional Orders under the Labourers (Ireland) Acts, 1883-1903, numbered 53, and one such petition remained from previous year; in 6 cases the Orders were confirmed, in 13 cases the Orders were disallowed, in 4 they were varied, and 31 cases were pending at the close of the year. There were 3 petitions against by-laws under the Fisheries (Ireland) Acts; in one the Order was confirmed and 2 petitions were pending at the close of the year. There were 3 applications under the Tramways (Ireland) Acts; of these, one was granted, one was otherwise disposed of, and one was pending at the close of the year 1906.

House of Lords.
Table 42.

Six applications from Ireland were presented to the House of Lords in the year 1906, and one appeal was pending from 1905. One judgment was delivered during the year, in which the decision below was reversed, and one was dismissed for want of prosecution. At the close of the year 5 effective causes remained for hearing.

Table 40.

From Table 40 it appears that there were no cases of the nature of those reserved for the Judges of the King's Bench Division, as to cases not within the 11 & 13 Vic., cap. 78, before the Judges in 1906.

11.—LOCAL ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE—LARGER DISTRICTS.

Admiralty jurisdiction :—During the year 1906 there were not any actions or proceedings in Local Courts, either in Belfast or in Cork ; in 1905 there were 3 actions in Belfast and 4 in Cork.

The chief (Probate) business in 1905 and 1906 in the District Registries of the Probate and Matrimonial Branch of the King's Bench Division, was as follows :—

DISTRICT PROBATE REGISTRIES.	1905.	1906.	Increase, 1906.	Decrease, 1905.

It may be seen from the above tabular statement that, on comparison with the number in the year 1905, the wills proved and letters of administration granted in 1906 in the aggregate were equal to those granted in 1905, the number of District Registries being eleven.

In the aggregate, the total number at both Central and District Registries (9,820) is 156 above the number in 1905.

Under the 33rd Section of "The Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1891," local facilities for obtaining grants of probate or letters of administration are afforded where the gross value of the personal estate of the deceased does not exceed £300, and by section 16 of "The Finance Act, 1894," the limit has been extended to £500. In 1905 there were in Ireland 99 towns where officers of Inland Revenue were authorized to deal with applications under the provisions referred to.

The Proceedings in Belfast and Cork Local Bankruptcy Courts are dealt with on page 19.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS ON CIRCUIT.

There are five circuits in Ireland, and during the year Assizes were held in thirty-two towns.

COURT OF THE IRISH LAND COMMISSION.

The Commissioners appointed under the Land Law (Ireland) Acts have many functions of a judicial character; it is therefore necessary in this Report to refer to the judicial portion of their proceedings, and it is convenient to do so here, as the questions dealt with are somewhat allied to those under the Act of 1870—dealt with above—and are mainly determined in the Courts of the Sub-Commissioners which are most properly dealt with as part of the local administration of justice.

It is not necessary to give in this Report a detailed account of the business of the Court of the Land Commission, as the Reports of the Commissioners contain full information on the subject.

The extent and nature of the proceedings under the Land Law Acts, with relation to rents, are shown generally in the following summary for the year 1906 :—

£67,262, and the judicial rents registered by the Court £53,808, showing a reduction of £13,454, or 20·0 per cent. of the "former rent," as compared with a reduction of 16·8 per cent. in the year 1905; the amount of the first statutory term judicial rents in the cases in which second term rents were fixed being £129,875, which was reduced to a judicial rent of £107,693 for the second statutory term, showing a reduction of £22,182, or 17·1 per cent. of the judicial rent for the first statutory term, in comparison with a reduction of 16·0 per cent. in the year 1905. Some of the "judicial rents" referred to are liable to variation on appeal.

The number of cases of appeal from the Land Commission to the Court of Appeal, and how these were disposed of, will be found in Table 39 of Appendix. They are referred to at page 20 under the head of Appellate Jurisdiction.

From the Report on Judicial Statistics for the year 1902 (Part II, Civil Statistics), it appears that the number of Tenant Purchasers under the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1885, from August, 1885, when the Act came into operation, to the 31st December, 1902, was 25,367, of whom 12,954, or 51·1 per cent., were in Ulster; 5,204, or 20·5 per cent., in Munster; 4,221, or 16·6 per cent., in Leinster; and 2,988, or 11·8 per cent., in Connaught. The total Purchase money for the whole period, from the 22nd August, 1885, to the 31st December, 1902, was £10,162,834, and the total amount of Loans £9,992,536. There was no sale during either 1901 or 1902. In the years 1886 to 1896, when sales under this Act practically terminated, the average number of years' Purchase on the Net Rental was as follows:—in the first year 18·2, in the second 17·5, in the third 17·4, in the fourth 17·2, in the fifth 16·2, in the sixth 16·6, in the seventh 16·9, in the eighth 17·1; in the period from 22nd August, 1893, to 31st December of that year, 16·6; in the year ended 31st December, 1894, 16·9; in the year ended 31st December, 1895, 15·5; and in the year 1896, 15·7.

A Return of Sales to Tenants under the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Acts, 1891 and 1896, in which Loans (Guaranteed Land Stock) were issued during the years ending the 31st December, 1905, and 31st December, 1906, is contained in Table 62 on page 101. During the year 1905 the Loans issued (Guaranteed Land Stock) amounted to £11,754, the Purchase money agreed upon being £11,754, and the number of Tenant Purchasers 121.

The following table shows the amount of Loans (Guaranteed Land Stock) issued, and the Purchase money agreed upon, in the case of sales to Tenants under the provisions of the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Acts, 1891 and 1896, during each of the fifteen years 1892 (when loans were first issued under the Act of 1891) to 1906:—

A Summary of Proceedings for the years 1905 and 1906 by the Land Commissioners and the Estates Commissioners in connection with Cash Advances under the Irish Land Act, 1903, is given in Table 63 in Three Divisions. The First Division, which deals with Advances made by the Land Commissioners, other than those made by the Estates Commissioners, contains a Return of Advances made to Tenants under the Irish Land Acts, 1891 to 1903, during each of the years ended 31st December, 1905, and 31st December, 1906. These advances amounted to £292,849 in 1904, and the Purchase Money agreed upon was £297,819; in 1905 the advances amounted to £253,110, and the Purchase Money agreed upon was £255,583, the number of Tenant Purchasers being 1,804; in the period under review the Advances increased to £296,360, the Purchase Money agreed upon was £299,034, and the number of Tenant Purchasers was 1,957.

The Second Division of the Table contains three Tabular Statements relating to Cash Advances made by the Estates Commissioners during each of the years ended 31st December, 1905, and 31st December, 1906. Tabular Statement (a) comprises a Return of Advances made in cases of direct sales during the periods referred to. These advances amounted to £3,326,650 in the period ending 31st December, 1904; in the year 1905 to £3,713,270; and in 1906 to £4,405,331. Tabular Statement (b) gives a Return of Advances for the Purchase and Re-sale of Estates under Sections 6 and 8 of the Irish Land Act, 1903, made during the years 1905 and 1906. In the year 1904 the advances for Purchase amounted to £184,934, and for Re-sales to £104,405; in 1905 the Advances for Purchase amounted to £692,178, and the Advances for Re-sales to £550,192; in 1906 the Advances for Purchase amounted to £574,315, and the Advances on Re-sales to £551,401. Tabular Statement (c) contains a Return of Advances made during the years 1905 and 1906 for the Purchase of Estates under Section 7 of the Act. These advances amounted to £106,015 in 1904, in which year advances in connection with Re-sales amounted to £108,958; in 1905 the advances made under Section 7 amounted to £243,447, and the advances made in connection with Re-sales to £195,946. In the year 1906 advances under this Section amounted to £274,010, advances in connection with Re-sales amounting to £173,338.

The Third Division of Table 63 gives a Return of the Advances made for the purposes of the Congested Districts Board. The total of these advances for the year 1905 was £215,157, and for the year 1906 it was £535,817. It also sets forth in a special Tabular Statement the Re-sales by the Congested Districts Board under the Irish Land Act, 1903.

Proceedings of Sheriffs.

The proceedings of Sheriffs in the year of their office 1906-7, including those having relation to Jurors summoned, and those already referred to, are set forth in detail in Tables 56 and 58.

JURORS.

Revision of Jurors' Lists and correction of Jurors'
Books.
Table 57.

As the result of the revision of the General Jurors' Lists, 53,065 out of 135,874 persons, or 39·1 per cent., were struck off; there were only 39 persons added by Revision Court, 32 being in the City of Dublin, 2 in the County of Dublin, 3 in the County of Westmeath, one in the County of Antrim, and one in Tyrone.

Besides those who were struck off on revision 263 were exempted by Clerks of the Peace, and 11 were struck off the books by Judges. This gives the total number of Jurors on the corrected General Jurors' Books for 1907 (when handed to the Sheriffs) in all Ireland as 82,574, of whom 58,835 were on rated qualification, 19,933 were £10 freeholders (in the preceding year the number was 15,521), 3,623 were £20 leaseholders, 656 Directors or Managers of Public Companies, and 27 Harbour Commissioners.

Of the total (16,291 persons) on the Special Jurors' Lists, 5,542 persons were struck off by Revision Court, 155 were exempted by the Clerks of the Peace, one was struck off the books by Judge, and 218 persons were added by Revision Court, so that there was a net reduction of 5,480, or 34 per cent. When handed to the Sheriffs the books showed 10,811 Special Jurors.

Jurors
summoned.
Table 58.

It appears from the returns made by the Sheriffs that the total number of jurors summoned in the year numbered 42,655, as compared with 43,114 in 1905. Of the number for 1906, 4,632 were Grand Jurors* for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 8,439 were Grand Jurors for Quarter Sessions; 1,049* were Special Jurors for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 12,620 were Petit and Common Jurors for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 14,368 were Petit Jurors for Quarter Sessions; 1,382 were Jurors in Civil Bill cases before County Court Judges or Recorders; and there were 80 Jurors for other purposes summoned.

Appeals
from Magistrates at Quarter
Sessions.
Table 60.

In the following summary the appeals from Magistrates at Quarter Sessions in 1905 are compared with those for 1906:—

APPEALS AT QUARTER SESSIONS.	1905.	1906.	Reversed, 1905.	Reversed, 1906.
Appeals from Magistrates:—
Affirmed,	994	178	—	36
Reversed,	152	115	—	37
Varied,	85	63	—	23
Otherwise disposed of (including cases in which there was no appearance),	114	121	7	—
Total,	1345	477	—	78

From the above figures it appears that the number of appeals from Magistrates heard at Quarter Sessions was 78 below the number in 1905, the number for which year was 4 more than that for 1904. Of the appeals heard and decided in Court during 1906, in 178 cases the previous decisions were affirmed, in 115 reversed, in 63 varied, and in 121 "otherwise disposed of" (including cases in which there was no appearance).

* Special Jurors are included with Grand Jurors, in the case of Dublin County and Dublin City.

SPIRIT LICENCES.

As may be also seen in Table 60 the number of licences granted at Quarter Sessions other than the annual licensing Sessions was 933, which with the number granted or confirmed at the Annual Sessions (1,421), makes 2,354 in all, and of these 261 were on original application, being 11 over the number of licences granted on original application in 1905, and 124 over the corresponding number for 1904.

Civil proceedings.

The Civil cases, other than proceedings against cottier and weekly tenants, at Petty Sessions were disposed of as follows:—

The Returns show the number of occasions on which, in consequence of the non-attendance of Magistrates, Petty Sessions were not held. This number (224), as compared with 12,478 sittings of Petty Sessions Courts other than Dublin Police Courts, gives a proportion of 1·8 per cent.; but this proportion is not uniformly distributed, and reaches 3·2 per cent. in the province of Connaught, as appears from the following table:—

In Leinster the postponements decreased from 75 in 1905 to 62 in 1906; in Munster they numbered 71 in 1906, being 14 less than in the preceding year; in Ulster the number decreased from 35 in 1905 to 24 in 1906; and in Connaught the postponements decreased from 85 in 1905 to 67 in 1906. The total number for all Ireland, after having fallen gradually from 596 in 1892 to 273 in 1896, rose to 324 in 1897, then fell to 284 in 1898, rose to 374 in 1899, fell to 357 in 1900, rose to 382 in 1901, and then fell to 319 in 1902, to 308 in 1903, to 269 in 1904, rose to 280 in 1905, and declined to 224 in 1906.

* This deficiency arises of money appropriated out of the Funds in Cash, under the authority of various Acts of Parliament, towards the cost of the buildings of the Courts of Law and Law Officers in Dublin, and of a loan of £125,000 (the 11s.) arising from a deficiency in the accounts of a County Master of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, provided for by Act 33 and 34 Geo. III. c. 113 (1793), and 50 Geo. III. c. 41 (1785). The Grand Jurors had to be paid in the amount of the deficiency, in the event of the Funds in Cash being at any time insufficient to meet payments in advance. The liability may however be paid in any other way.

† This deficiency, which is incurred by any legal liability of the Accountant-General, is the result of a double payment of 4s. 2d. in 1847, and 1848, and 1849, and 1850, and 1851, and 1852, and 1853,
